

IIFL Finance helps 27,830 women plan for future through “Kal Ki Bachat” workshops

Mumbai. IIFL Finance along with IIFL Foundation, recently organised various community activities under the banner of “IIFL Milan” through its formidable network of branches. IIFL organized more than 1030 camps in over 700 cities and towns across the country.

Branded as “Chalokarein, KalkiBachat’ to increase awareness on being financial-ready for the future through systematic planning. These camps drew participation from more than 27,830 women and senior citizens. Dr. Sarika Kulkarni, CEO of IIFL Foundation, said about the events, “IIFL Finance is a responsible organization that believes that women should take active part in the financial planning of her household. The “Kal Ki Bachat” financial literacy workshops conducted by IIFL exclusively for women, innovatively explained goal-based financial planning to the participants and would be helpful in achieving their objectives.” IIFL Finance is a systemically important Non-Banking Financial Company not accepting public deposits and engaged in the business of home and property loans, gold loans, loan against securities, SME business and micro-finance loans. IIFL Finance has a long-term credit rating of AA (Stable) by Crisil, AA (Stable) by ICRA and AA (Positive) by CARE.